

2. purpose

2.1 The humanitarian, non-profit association "Friedenstaube" Bern-Switzerland bases all its activities on humanism, as an ethical philosophy and worldview that is driven by interests, values and human dignity. tolerance, peace and Freedom of conscience are the most important principles for a common human life, according to which the association will act The association aims in its activities to support humanitarian activities and missions concrete charity in favour of the needy, to organise and develop. At the centre are people who have been victims of the most serious human rights violations, which need medical care or live in extreme poverty.

2.1.1 The association supports and promotes projects which are in keeping with humanism, charity and universal peace, integration and of social emancipation verpflichtet.

2.1.2 The association is committed to the protection of human rights - in particular the rights of women and children - in the framework of UNO Convention on Human Rights.

2.1.3 The purpose of the association also includes the promotion of understanding and help for sections of the population who not only economic support, but also humane need housing.

2.2 The association has goals in the international plan of peace, the humanism and charity. The association works charitably and is not for profit.